DUNLAP -- Dunlap School District 323 has hired a new superintendent.

Doctor J. Jay Marino is replacing retiring Superintendent Jeanne Williamson

Marino is the current assistant superintendent for "Learning and Continuous Improvement" in Cedar Rapids.

Marino says his shared leadership skills are what make him the best candidate for the job.

"My approach, which has been successful in the organizations that I've led has been bringing even the front lines to the table for decision making," Marino said.

"(It's) empowering them with the ability to make decisions and together the best decisions are made with a collective group and a well thought out process," Marino said.

Marino was picked from more than 50 applicants.
